

Agreement Regarding Insurance and Fees

As a courtesy to you, we will gladly file your claims directly with your insurance company(s). However, it is your responsibility to handle any coverage related problems with your insurance company. Our responsibility is to file proper claims in the proper format.

You are responsible for any deductibles and/or co-insurance and/or out of pocket amounts. It is also your responsibility to be aware of whether or not the specific services and/or diagnosis applicable to your child's therapy is/is not covered under your health plan, and to what extent.

We will do our very best to help you understand your insurance benefits, however, we do not guarantee anything about your insurance. All payment decisions are made by your insurance company upon their receipt of each claim, based on your benefit plan. It is your responsibility to know your insurance coverage, including any pre-authorizations that your policy may require. It is also your responsibility to communicate this information to our office staff prior to receiving therapy from our company. _____ Initial

Unless you have other coverage that would exempt you, you are responsible for non-covered services, deductibles, copays and out of pocket amounts as determined by your insurance company. _____ Initial

We do not assess late charges or service fees for any of our patients. We do however forward unpaid accounts to a collection agency if not satisfied within 90 days after the end of the month in which the services are rendered. You agree by initialing below that you will be responsible for the account balance, and for the cost of collection, if your account is turned over to a collection agency. _____ Initial
